Elizabeth Seton High School

Dear Subscriber,

Please take your time in reading May's issue! It is quite extensive, but exciting to read!

From the Classroom

- Sophomore student Sherell Sloan '12 was nominated by Seton's Choral Music Director Dr. Kathleen Vadala and accepted into the Daniel Fox Youth Scholars Institute Summer Program on the Campus of Lebanon Valley College in Pennsylvania. The week long workshop will be held from June 20th-25th. Sherell was accepted into the Song Writing and Recording program, where she will experience all aspects of song writing, including publishing and copyrights. She'll learn to prepare tracks for songs and record songs she has written in the recording studio and much more.
- Future Roadrunners Molly Riordan'14 and Alyssa Potter'14 won the Catholic Business Network Scholarship Essay Contest. The Essay Contest was open to all eighth grade students currently attending a Prince George's County Catholic grade school or religious education program who plan to attend a Catholic High School in the fall of 2010.

Riordan, who will be graduating from St. Pius X in Bowie, won 1st place and received a $1,500 scholarship! Potter, who also will be graduating from St. Pius, placed 3rd in the contest and won a $500 scholarship!

- Sophomore Assata Terrell's poem - "Books, Books, Books" has been accepted to be published in A Celebration of Poets (through Creative Communications).
- Mia Simon '11 has just been accepted as a summer intern at the Newseum.

Seton Advancement

- There are many exciting changes happening in Seton Advancement, one being our name change to Seton Advancement. Seton Advancement has recently undergone restructuring, which we hope will be for the betterment of the school. The restructuring is as follows: Kelli Horton, Executive Director and new to Seton (her daughter, Mackenzi Olree is a freshman), Erica Corbin, Associate Director and a 2000 graduate; and Maureen McCart, Executive Manager, who has been with Seton for seven years. Another change you will notice in the next month is Seton Notes will be replaced with S Magazine. Our new publication will cover school events, athletics, academics, alumnae, and more. We hope that you will enjoy this full color magazine, and if you have stories to share, you can email Kelli at khorton@setonhs.org

Also, on June 21st at 6:30 p.m. is an Alumnae Association meeting. We invite all alumnae to attend. We are in the beginning stages of formalizing committees and molding the association as a whole. Please come and support your Alumnae Association!

- Come walk with President Sister Ellen Marie Hagar '74 in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure! Please follow the link below for all the details about this inspiring event and to register:

- This is a time of year when there is much happening to wrap-up the school year. The underclassmen are finishing the semester and preparing for their final exams, teachers are putting the final touches on their exams, and seniors are turning in final scholarship letters. There is much more happening inside the school worth noting. Sophomores, who are the rising juniors, are signing up to be the Big Sisters for the in-coming class of 2014. Sophomores have placed their orders for their class rings, which they will receive at a special ceremony in the fall. Students are meeting with Campus Ministry to plan the Freshman Retreat in August. Juniors and seniors have already begun to request spots as leaders on retreats for next year. And finally, the seniors are preparing for their big day - June 1st.

Vincenian Service

- Many thanks and congratulations to the members of Vincenian Service who during 2009-2010 made:
 - 6800 sandwiches for the hungry at SOME
 - 16 visits to the children at St. Ann's Day Care
 - 13 visits to the elderly at Sacred Heart Nursing Home

As you can see from the length of this issue and the incredible accomplishments of our students, it is breathtakingly clear that Seton's light is shining brighter than ever.

We applaud our students' accomplishments. They truly serve as outstanding ambassadors and representatives of our community.

Next month's issue of Seton Express will be the last issue of the school year. Stay tuned until then and if you have any news to share with us, please contact me at: lclark@setonhs.org

Until Next Month,

Laura Clark
